

530 Mission Ave

Albuquerque's North Valley provides a uniquely peaceful and serene lifestyle. Unfortunately, that lifestyle usually comes with a price—homes in the area are often antiquated and in need of repair. This spectacular little home in the valley brings together the best of all possibilities—a wonderfully serene North Valley location combined with an impeccable remodel. Purchase this heartwarming home for it's wonderful location and enjoy the confidence and peace-of-mind that comes with expert craftsmanship.

The cozy living room has a fully functioning wood burning stove.

Two bedrooms are well separated from the main living area so some folks can nap while others enjoy the living room.

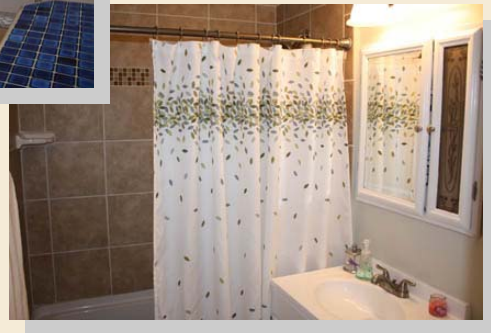

The kitchen countertops provide just the perfect touch of that North Valley style.

The floor plan is awesome with the living room neatly separated from the kitchen by this centrally located dining area.

You'll be amazed by the super high quality craftsmanship in this bathroom shower with tile surround.
